JANUARY 24, 2013

The U.S. Embassy Tegucigalpa, Honduras assumes no responsibility or liability for the professional ability or reputation of, or the quality of services provided by, the following persons or firms. Inclusion on this list is in no way an endorsement by the Department of State or the U.S. Embassy/Consulate. Names are listed alphabetically, and the order in which they appear has no other significance. The information in the list on professional credentials, areas of expertise and language ability are provided directly by the lawyers; the Embassy is not in a position to vouch for such information. You may receive additional information about the individuals on the list by contacting the local bar association or the local licensing authorities.

This Booklet Provides:

- Contact information for the Honduran Bar Association.
- A list of Honduran attorneys, whose names were obtained through the Honduran Bar Association and who responded to our offer to appear on this list.
- A list of Interpreters.
- Information on Notaries and Authentications
- A list of website resources.

How to find what you are looking for:

The attorney list is initially divided by cities listed in alphabetical order.

Attorneys within each city are listed in alphabetical order on a first name basis.

Each city shows the department to which it belongs (Honduras is geographically divided into 18 departments – country subdivisions). This information is provided in order to assist you locate an attorney in a nearby city, when the city of your choice is not on the list.

We hope this booklet is of assistance to you.

In providing this list, the U.S. Embassy at Tegucigalpa, Honduras, assumes no responsibility for the professional ability, integrity or fees of these persons whose names appeared in the following list.

NOTARIES AND AUTHENTICATIONS

Notarization of documents (oath taken by consular officer)

Documents will be notarized Mondays through Fridays from 8:00 to 11:30 a.m.

Requirements:

1. Proof of identity. Your passport or any other type of government-issued identification card as long as it has your photograph and your complete name.
2. Fee of $50.00. Fees may be paid in U.S. dollars or the equivalent in Lempiras at the Embassy in Tegucigalpa.

If your documents require witnesses you will need to bring them with you and they must present government-issued identification as well.

Authentication of documents (certification of genuine signature)

On September 30, 2004 the “Hague Legalization Convention” entered into force in Honduras. Both Honduras and the United States are party to this Convention. Therefore:

1. In accordance with the Convention, documents issued by countries party to the Convention are not required to be authenticated by consular representatives of the country where they will be used. Instead they must be accepted when bearing an Apostle.
2. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs has been designated as the Central Authority for Honduras and will be issuing the Apostles for Honduras.
3. Within the United States: For Federal Agency documents the U.S. Authority is the U.S. Department of State Authentications Office. For Federal court documents the U.S. Authority is the clerk of the federal courts. For documents originating in a state of the U.S. the Authority is listed at http://www.hcch.net/index_en.php?act=authorities.details&aid=353
